hereby constitutes and appoints each of the following persons AFC International, LLC, through its Licensed Officers and Specifically Authorized Employees. If a non-resident corporation, we further authorize for foregoing to accept service of process for the limited purpose of Customs business only, and for the appointment of sub-agent(s). If a resident corporation, we further authorize any of the foregoing to appoint as our agent, such other broker(s) as may be required. Such agent(s) shall be authorized to accept service of process for the limited purpose of Customs business only on our behalf, as a true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact of the grantor named above for and in the name, place, and stead of said grantor from this date and in all Customs ports, and in no other name, to make, endorse, sign, declare, or swear to any entry, withdrawal, declaration, certificate, bill of lading, or other document required by law or regulation in connection with the importation, transportation, or exportation of any merchandise shipped or consigned by or to said grantor; to receive, endorse, and collect checks issued for Customs duty refunds in grantor's name drawn on the Treasurer of the United States; to perform any act or condition which may be required by law or regulation in connection with such merchandise; to receive any merchandise deliverable to said grantor;

To make endorsements on bills of lading conferring authority to make entry and collect drawback, and to make, sign, declare, or swear to any statement, supplemental statement, schedule, supplemental schedule, certificate of delivery, certificate of manufacture, certificate of manufacture and delivery, abstract of manufacturing records, declaration of proprietor on drawback entry, or any other affidavit or document which may be required by law or regulation for drawback purposes, regardless of whether such bill of lading, sworn statement, schedule, certificate, abstract, declaration, or other affidavit or document is intended for filing in said port or in any other Customs port.

To sign, seal, and deliver for and as the act of said grantor any bond required by law or regulation in connection with the entry or withdrawal of imported merchandise or merchandise exported with or without benefit of drawback, or in connection with the entry, clearance, lading, unloading, or navigation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor, and any and all bonds which may be voluntarily given and accepted under applicable laws and regulations, consignee's and owner's declarations provided for in section 485, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, or affidavits in connection with the entry of merchandise;

To sign and swear to any document and to perform any act that may be necessary or required by law or regulation in connection with the entering, clearing, lading, unloading, or operation of any vessel or other means of conveyance owned or operated by said grantor;

To act as an authorized agent for Export Control and Census Reporting purposes and to make, sign, swear to or endorse any export declarations, export documents, bills of lading, carnets or other documents necessary for the completion of an export on grantor's behalf as may be required under law and regulation and to appoint forwarding agents on grantor's behalf;

Grantor waived the confidentiality requirements of Sections 111.24 of the Customs Regulations and the requirement in Section 111.36 of the Customs Regulations that the Customs Broker transmits a copy of its bill for service directly to the importer, and authorized the Customs Broker to transmit its bill for services and copies of the Customs entry documents and related documents (CBP-7501 or other documents used to make entry, commercial invoices, etc.) through Grantor's forwarder. No part of this agreement or any other agreement forbids or prevents direct communication between the importer or other party in interest and the Customs Broker.

And generally to transact at the Customhouses in said port any and all Customs business, including making, signing, and filing of protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the premises as fully as said grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney-in-fact shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents; the foregoing power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until revoked and notice of such revocation in writing is duly given to and received by the Port Director of Customs of the port aforesaid. If the donor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force of effect after the expiration of 2 years from the date of its receipt in the office of the port director of Customs of the said port.

This power of attorney to remain full force and effect until revocation in writing is duly given to and received by grantee (if the donor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect in the United States after the expiration 2 years from the dates of its execution);

The execution of this Power of Attorney acknowledges that we have read the Terms and Conditions of service as outlines on the subsequent page of this Customs Power of Attorney and agree to such Terms and Conditions.

By signing this form, the signatory certifies that he/she has full authority to execute this power on behalf of the Grantor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said _____

If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for U.S. Customs charges, (duties, taxes or other debts owed Customs) in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "Bureau of Customs & Border Protection", which shall be delivered to customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks.
